Sixty Six Oil Field Services Announces its Corporate Governance

Oviedo, FL – SIXTY-SIX OILFIELD SERVICES, INC. (OTC: SSOF) Daniel Sobolewski, CEO of SIXTY-SIX OILFIELD SERVICES, INC., said today, We are dedicated to providing unparalleled value to our customers and stakeholders. In order to achieve we remain committed to transparency and adaptation of responsible corporate practices.

Sixty Six Oil Field Services management team demands excellence, efficiency, and diversity. The new business plan is a testament to the company's commitment to delivering cutting-edge solutions while staying true to its core values.

Establishing corporate governance is crucial for any organization to ensure transparency, accountability, and ethical practices. Our Corporate governance involves balancing the interests of our company's many stakeholders, shareholders, management, customers, suppliers and financiers.

In the past year we've established;

- Set up a diverse and competent board of directors responsible for overseeing the company's management, strategy, and performance. The board will include independent directors to provide objective viewpoints.
- We've developed and are implementing a comprehensive set of corporate governance policies that outline the roles, responsibilities, and code of conduct for directors, executives, and employees.
- We are committed to fostering a culture of transparency by regularly communicating with stakeholders through annual reports, financial statements, press releases and other disclosures. Transparency builds trust and confidence in the company.
- We've establish clear lines of accountability within the organization, ensuring that every individual understands their responsibilities and is answerable for their actions.
- We're developing a robust risk management framework to identify, assess, and mitigate various risks faced by the company. Regularly review risk management practices to ensure their effectiveness.

- We are instilling a strong ethical culture within the organization by promoting integrity, honesty, and ethical behavior. Provide ethics training for employees and ensure ethical considerations are part of decision-making processes.
- We have designed a fair and performance-based executive compensation system aligned with the company's long-term goals. We will avoid compensation structures that incentivize excessive risk-taking.
- We have established Shareholder Rights to respect and protect the rights of shareholders, allowing them to participate in key decisions and have a say in the company's governance.
- We've Established Compliance to comply with all applicable laws, regulations, and corporate governance codes. We will hire a compliance officer to monitor adherence to these requirements.
- We've Established Internal Controls to implement robust internal control mechanisms to safeguard assets, prevent fraud, and ensure accurate financial reporting.
- We will Engage with stakeholders, including customers, suppliers, employees, and the community, to understand their needs and concerns, and address them appropriately.
- We Will Periodically evaluate the effectiveness of corporate governance practices, and be willing to make improvements based on the outcomes.
- We will Commit to Conduct in the coming year regular external audits of financial statements and corporate governance practices to provide an objective assessment.

Establishing and maintaining effective corporate governance is an ongoing process that requires commitment from the company's leadership and the active involvement of all stakeholders. It helps build a strong foundation for long-term success, growth, and sustainability of the organization.
